

Message of the "Licence In Arts and Education Program:
Specialization in Arabic Language and Literature
(Preparatory and Secondary) (General)"

The program aims to prepare a generation of Arabic language teachers for the general education Scientifically competent and educationally qualified, possessing the necessary skills and competencies to teach Arabic with efficiency and competence, and adhere to professional ethics, It implements teaching and learning strategies, utilizes technology, and promotes educational and research values, national belonging, and cultural identity, and is able to compete in the local, regional, and global labor market.