

Environmental Families Festival 2023-2024

the Friends of the Environment family at the ,2024 ,24 College of Education won first place in the University-wide Environmental Families Festival competition, an achievement that reflects the excellence of the college's students in environmental and community activities, and their keenness to participate effectively in supporting .environmental issues and serving the community

