

The Faculty of Education achieved first place in the university's National Literacy Project for the academic year 2024/2025. (Dated 10-7-2025)

The Faculty of Education at Helwan University achieved first place for the third time in a row in the National Literacy Project at the university level during the academic year 2024/2025 AD, in recognition of the efforts of its students in eradicating illiteracy for more than 4,450 ,learners during three consecutive examination sessions with the participation of about 920 students, which reflects the role of the faculty in serving the community and .contributing to achieving community development