

Scientific Information Competition – at the level of faculties of Helwan University

For the year 2022-2023

The Faculty of Education team achieved first place in the scientific information competition at the level of faculties of Helwan University, in an achievement that reflects the excellence of the college's students in scientific fields and .their ability to compete and achieve advanced positions

