

University-level Religious Information Competition for the year 2023-2024

The College of Education achieved second place at the university level on 20-3-2024 in the Religious Information Competition, with the participation of a group of college students, in an achievement that reflects the excellence of .the students in cultural, religious and cognitive aspects